On Wednesday 13 April, Fr Grun gave an excellent talk on the three stages of marriage, commenting on the Wedding of Cana as follows:

The first stage is characterised by the wine, which the bride and the groom have prepared because it would be improper to celebrate a wedding feast with only mineral water. Wine gladdens the heart of man (Ps 104.15).

This wine is an expression of festive joy, the happiness of the newly-weds that they have found each other and now can begin the new chapter of their married life. It is an expression of sheer willpower of the married couple: "You will always be someone special to me!" It is an expression of love from the word of the Canticle of Canticles: Your love is more precious than wine! (Cant 1.2). Therefore, what we can see in this wine is a symbol of first love.

Then comes the second stage: Before long, the first wine is running out. It is almost ironic; what is happening in this wedding happens in some cases much later: The first love seems to disappear and is replaced by everyday life.

The third stage: Mary goes to Jesus to tell Him of the misery of the bride and groom... He commanded the servants to fill six stone jars with water up to the brim. Then he let them bring the stone jars to the chief steward... The headwaiter then calls the groom and points out to him that the new wine was much better than the first wine!

The new wine that Jesus gives is better than the first. Here lies the great promise of Jesus, that He would implant into the hearts of the spouses a love that is more beautiful, more serious and more solid than the first love!

Next talk on 21 May—not to be missed!

Excerpts of Bishop Fellay's sermon at Le Puy, France, Sunday 10 April 2016:

On the permission given to divorced-remarried to receive communion (Amoris Laetitia)

"This is very serious. I think we do not gauge enough the seriousness of what is being said. Although it is affirmed that there are only very few exceptions... It is as I told you, some small holes in the boat are enough to make the boat sink."

On the meeting with Pope Francis (1 April)

"He [Pope Francis] told me : 'I won't condemn you. You are Catholic.' He also said: 'The faculty to hear confessions will be extended beyond the Holy Year as well as for Extreme Unction and the absolution of the sin of abortion.'"

On the meeting with Abp. Pozzo (2 April)

"The next day we saw Abp. Pozzo, Secretary of the Ecclesia Dei commission, this body in Rome that deals with us. And Abp. Pozzo said: 'We believe - the Congregation of the Faith, not just him - that we must ask of you what we ask from every Catholic, and nothing more.' He developed his thought saying 'the Second Vatican Council in the most part did nothing doctrinal, and therefore we should not ask it of you.' He was ever much clearer, he said: 'You have the right to defend your opinion on religious freedom, on ecumenism, on the relations with other religions as outlined in Nostra Aetate.' It was so surprising that I said: 'It's not impossible that I ask you to come and say that to us in person.'"

I actually think this change of attitude is profound and very important; it is due to the dramatic situation of the Church...

All this shows to us that fidelity to what the Church has always taught pays off."

NB: In the course of this meeting, Bishop Fellay was encouraged by Abp. Pozzo to establish a seminary in Italy.

GET OUT OF THE WAY

"I've learned that when you deal with God, get out of the way! I think that's the best advice I could offer you. Because He has plans that we wouldn't think of in a million years. You need to just let God do whatever He wants to do; and watch what happens."
