THE END OF TIMES

On 21 January 1610, Our Lady gave a message to Mother Mariana in Quito, Ecuador, on the state of the Church and Catholic society in the 20th century. You certainly all know about this apparition. If you forgot what Our Lady said, here below are a few quotes taken from her message:

- “Unbridled passions will give way to a total corruption of customs because Satan will reign through the Masonic sects, targeting the children in particular to ensure general corruption.”

- “Unhappy, the children of those times! Seldom will they receive the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. As for the sacrament of Penance, they will confess only while attending Catholic schools, which the devil will do his utmost to destroy by means of persons in authority.”

- “In those times, the sacrament of Extreme Unction will be largely ignored.... Many will die without receiving it, being thereby deprived of innumerable graces, consolation, and strength in the great leap from time to eternity.”

- “The sacrament of Matrimony, which symbolises the union of Christ with the Church, will be thoroughly attacked and profaned. Masonry, then reigning, will implement iniquitous laws aimed at extinguishing this sacrament...”

- “Secular education will contribute to a scarcity of priestly and religious vocations.”

- “In those times the atmosphere will be saturated with the spirit of impurity which, like a filthy sea, will engulf the streets and public places with incredible license.... Innocence will scarcely be found in children, or modesty in women.

- “Unhappy times will come wherein those who should fearlessly defend the rights of the Church will instead, blinded despite the light, give their hand to the Church’s enemies and do their bidding. But when [evil] seems triumphant and when authority abuses its power, committing all manner of injustice and oppressing the weak, their ruin shall be near. They will fall and crash to the ground.

-“Then will the Church, joyful and triumphant like a young girl, reawaken and be comfortably cradled in the arms of my most dear and elect son of those times.”

- “To be delivered from the slavery of these heresies, those whom the merciful love of my Son has destined for this restoration will need great will-power, perseverance, courage, and confidence in God. To try the faith and trust of these just ones, there will be times when all will seem lost and paralysed. It will then be the happy beginning of the complete restoration...”

How do we know with certainty that it is a true apparition? There are two explanations. First, it has been approved by the Church. Second, its realisation is taking place before our very eyes since we are right in the midst of the chaos Our Blessed Mother foretold four hundred years ago.

We are seeing at present the deliquescence of Catholic institutions allowed and encouraged by the authorities of the Church themselves.

Our Lady was kind enough to warn us and even described a few of the manifestations of the Christian decadence so that we would not be caught by surprise.

Most importantly, Our Lady came to lift up our spirits for in spite of all the shocking events we would witness, she assured us of the one important thing: VICTORY [“when all will seem lost and paralysed. It will then be the happy beginning of the complete restoration...”].

I still do not understand why some are so worried about the end of times when Our Lady promised us that we are already on the winning side.

The martyrs of old were rejoicing when sent to the gallows for the love of Christ. Think of the martyrs of Japan: those who longed to die for Christ met death with courage and joy, and were found faithful to the end. Those who feared death eventually apostatised.

So why fear? Fear drives us right in the arms of the devil. Confidence, on the contrary, leads us straight to Jesus and makes us cling to His protection and might.
