The Cross had asked the questions; the Resurrection had answered them...The Cross had asked: “Why does God permit evil and sin to nail Justice to a tree?” The Resurrection answered: “That sin, having done its worst, might exhaust itself and this be overcome by Love that is stronger than either sin or death.”

(Archbishop Fulton Sheen, Lent and Easter Wisdom, 110)

*The Resurrection of Christ
Raffaello Sanzio (1501-1502)*

“On the third day the friends of Christ coming at daybreak to the place found the grave empty and the stone rolled away. In varying ways they realized the new wonder; but even they hardly realized that the world had died in the night. What they were looking at was the first day of a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth; and in a semblance of the gardener God walked again in the garden, in the cool not of the evening but of the dawn.” (G. K. Chesterton; The Everlasting Man)
