QUOTES FROM THE SAINT CURE OF ARS

"Almighty God sends no trial without consolation."

"Do not be afraid of people saying that going to Mass on a weekday is only for those who have nothing to do.... Are you ashamed to serve God for fear of being despised?"

"Remember that when the priest gives you absolution, you have but one thing to think of – that the Blood of the good God is flowing over your soul to purify it and make it as bright as it was made by its Baptism."

"Let us live as the Blessed Virgin lived: loving God only, desiring God only, trying to please God only in all that we do."

"He who does not pray is like a hen or a turkey that cannot rise into the air. He who prays is like an intrepid eagle!"

"Never let your home be without a crucifix upon its walls, to the end that all who enter it may know that you are a disciple of a Crucified Lord, and that you are not ashamed to own it."

"If we could only see the joy of our Guardian Angel when he sees up fighting our temptations! ..."

"Humility is to the various virtues what the chain is to the Rosary; take away the chain and the beads are scattered, remove Humility and all virtues vanish."

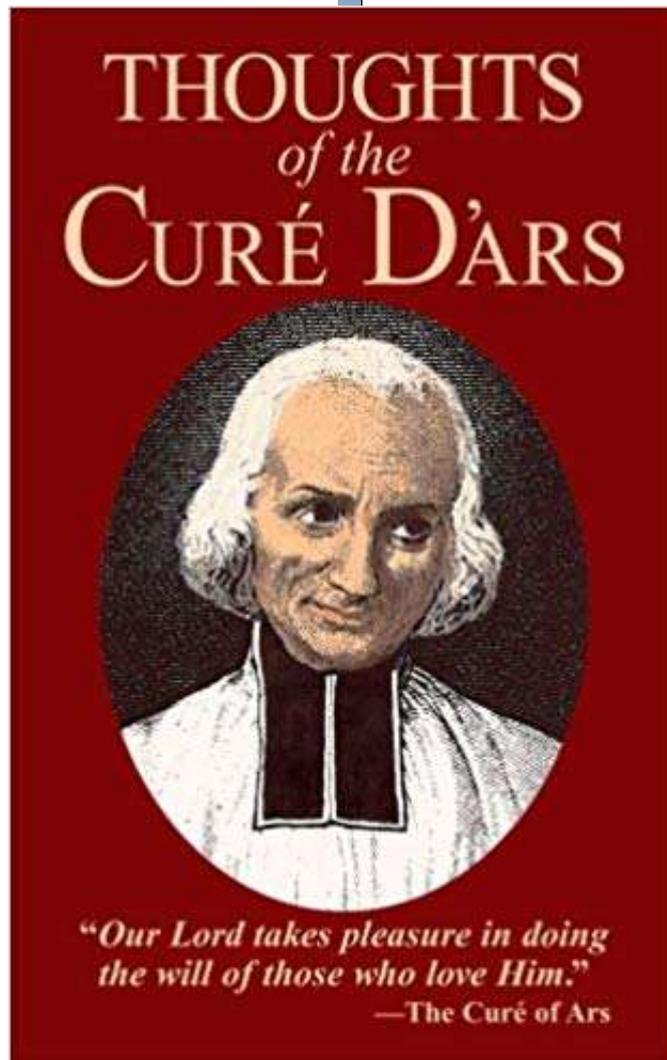

"The devil writes down our sins – our Guardian Angel all our merits. Labor that the Guardian Angel's book may be full, and the devil's empty."

"The Saints never complain."

"God acts vigorously and gently; it is good to rely on Him."

"Do not try to please everybody. Try to please God, the Angels, and the Saints – they are your public."

(Taken from Thoughts of the Cure D'Ars)

A lady of the name of Ruet, of Ouroux, in the department of the Rhone, had already a large family and was about to become a mother once more. She came to Ars in order to seek courage at the feet of its holy Cure. She had not long to wait, for M. Vianney summoned her from amid the crowd. "You look very sad my child." he said, when she was on her knees in his confessional. "Oh! I am so advanced in years Father!". He comforted her: "My child... if you only knew the women who will go to hell because they did not bring into the world the children they should have given to it."

"Come now my little one, he said with fatherly kindness to the woman who confided to him her anxiety because of her large family. "do not be alarmed at your burden' our Lord carries it with you. The good God does well all that he does: when he gives many children to a young mother it is that he deems her worthy to rear them. It is a mark of confidence on his part."
